MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: USAG Ansbach Child-Supervision Policy, Policy Letter # 51

1. This Policy outlines the USAG Ansbach child supervision policy and provides information to help parents safeguard their children via the Army in Europe Child-Supervision Guide (Encl). This policy is based on the child's grade in school, not the child's age.
2. Parents are ultimately responsible for the welfare and actions of their children. Failure to exercise those parental responsibilities may constitute child neglect. Parents must use good judgment and consider the physical, emotional, and psychological maturity of their child when determining the level of supervision the child requires. Parents should not give the degree of self-management and responsibility allowed in this policy to children with a history of attention deficit disorder (ADD), attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), behavioral problems, developmental delay, impulsivity, psychiatric problems, or other impairment.
3. Table 1 of the Enclosed, directs the level of adult supervision needed for children according to the grade level. Incidents of unsupervised children will be reported to the Military Police (MP), DSN 468-7643 or Comm 0981 183 643. The MPs are the Installation Family Advocacy Program (FAP) Report Point of Contact (RPOC) and will ensure that all incidents are investigated. The FAP RPOC will forward cases of unsupervised children to social work services and the USAG Ansbach Commander for resolution as appropriate. Table 2, of the enclosed, provides conversions from age to grade for home-schooled children. During the summer, children are considered to be in the grade they just completed.
 - a. Children in the fifth grade and below must have adult supervision at all times except as indicated in table 1 under the "May Be Left Outside Unattended (Including Playing)" and "May Be Left Unattended in a Car" columns.
 - b. Children in the sixth grade may baby-sit siblings over 2 years old for up to 3 hours if they have ready access to adult supervision. Children in the seventh grade may baby-sit children for up to 6 hours if they have ready access to adult supervision.
4. Table 3 of the enclosed, lists child-supervision criteria, including supervision levels, definitions, and supervision options for parents. Parents who need help identifying an option that meets their requirements should be referred to the Child and Youth Services resource and referral office. Parents are also encouraged to have children complete an approved baby-sitting course prior to providing baby-sitting services. Information on Baby-sitting services is available through the American Red Cross.

5. This Policy is applicable to all USAREUR supported personnel in the USAG Ansbach area of responsibility. Violations of this policy will be referred to the Garrison Commander for UCMJ action or Civilian Misconduct Action IAW AR 27-9 as appropriate.

6. POC for this policy is the USAG Ansbach Provost Marshal's Office, DSN 468-1580, Comm 0981 183 1580.

NOTES:

1. Adult supervision is defined as "someone who has or assumes responsibility for the child (for example, a parent, guardian, care provider, adult friend)."
2. Parents are responsible for assessing the individual capabilities of their children. Questions to answer may include "Can your child solve problems independently?" "Does your child think through to the consequences before choosing to behave in a certain way?" "How does your child occupy him- or herself when left with free time?"
3. Ready access is defined as "a minimum telephone access and telephone number of each person designated as adult supervision."
4. Children may have difficulty assessing dangerous weather conditions (for example, extreme heat or cold) and taking action to protect themselves.
5. Red Cross babysitting training is strongly recommended.
